My dear Mr. Wood:

Re: 72600012 Howland Wood

On April 3, the George S. Wilson Agency reported to us that you had sustained a loss as the result of someone's breaking in and entering your house and we would appreciate it at this time if you will advise us the extent of this loss. We understood from Agent Wilson that you wished to have some time to check over your household belongings in order to ascertain any missing articles. We would also appreciate it if you will inform us where you can be interviewed at your convenience in order that we may review this case with you.

Very truly yours,

HOWARD I. SIEGRIST, INC.

Gentlemen:

Re: 72600012 Howland Wood

In reply to your favor of May 14th would state that every time we go down to our summer cottage we find something else missing, However, only a few things apparently were taken; an army cot, a flashlight etc. I will communicate with you later. I can be interviewed most any week day at the above address. It would however be well to telephone first.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

I am returning the residence proof of loss sheet unfilled out as I do not think it worthwhile to make a claim, as the loss that we have been able to identify amounts to less than $1.00.

Very truly yours,

HW:JG
